Information and Pricing

Discover the charm of the Museum Plantin-Moretus, an exceptional location for your events in the heart of Antwerp. This historic museum and UNESCO World Heritage, offers a unique combination of rich history and facilities equipped to today's needs. With its picturesque courtyard garden, impressive art and books collection and century-old printing presses, the museum offers a unique and unforgettable background for every event, from intimate gatherings to large-scale happenings.

Ideal location: The Museum Plantin-Moretus is centrally- located in the lively, historic centre of Antwerp, and is easily reached. Situated on the quaint Vrijdagmarkt, a plethora of dining establishments, bars and hotels are in walking distance.

Historic and inspiring: This historic house emits a warm and unique atmosphere for your gatherings. The MPM, where art and history come together, inspires people and enriches gatherings by connecting people to cultural heritage.

A unique cultural experience: Enrich your event with our cultural programme. Experience guided tours through the museum's exhibitions and richly furnished rooms of the house, roll up your sleeves to make a print on our printing presses, brainstorm with team members among the masterpieces, or organize a unique evening event with drinks and small bites.
